THE GUARANTEE FUND.

We now have in hand about £80 in cash and definite promises, and appeal to all interested in the matter to help make up the necessary sum before the end of

We take the opportunity of urging branches and members to do their utmost to circulate the paper, since its success will enable it to reach a great degree depend upon its efforts. Probably the most effective method of support is by branches to guarantee to take a definite number of copies at wholesale price. Two or three branches being engaged in the same town, they will communicate with the others, and hope they will consider the matter and report to the manager at an early date.

Attention to provincial branches is specially called to the following reading-

"That branches be organised to urge special public meetings during the year.
