The Peterson (N. J.) Locomotive Standard is rendering itself unpleasantly famous by its "news" drawn from sources of information controlled by the enemies of labour. In the "news" are found round-ups of "riots" here and there. It is significant, therefore, to note that the Chicago and Milwaukee troubles, it gave prominence to many sensational items obviously concocted with a view to foster prejudice against "foreigners" and Socialists. From the standpoint of the radical part of the editors and that of the "news," we should imagine that the latter is part of a yard ready-made, or that it is another case of "pornography."—S.

We are very glad to note the rapid growth of revolutionary papers in all parts of the world, or, if not in quantity, in the quality of their Italian contemporaries, which have but a precious existence, owing to their constant suppression by the authorities. We have received lately the first few numbers of a new organ issued by the Anarchist anarchists in several Spanish revolutionary parties. La Justicia Humana, Barcelona (Communist-Anarchist), contains leaders clearly and well written, in spite of the most obstinate assertion in the manifestos of the first number that it is a paper to be inserted into the literature and cultivated style. There are several interesting articles and extracts from foreign papers. El Socialismo (Cuba) has some good original matter, several well-chosen extracts from the writings of Kropotkin and others, a translation of E. B. Bax's lecture on the "Coming Revolution," an original poem, "Easter Joy," and "Election Anarchists," from the English. Among the conclusions of a meeting of the Anarchists of that city, in celebration of the Paris Commune. The programme consisted of revolutionary discourses, interspersed with instrumental and vocal music, etc. Such a meeting, familiar enough in one form or another to us in England, is something of a novelty in the South.

"30,000, etc."—in small doses, from the women for the men—"is a little paper, published by four women comrades of San Francisco, who are not quite satisfied with what the men are doing, and intend to keep them up to the mark by weekly advice and encouragement. To these women the far West success in their undertaking but most useful effort is assured if they only make their number as large as that of the male organs. To-Day for June has a brightly-written dissertation upon the innumerable and disadvantageous of the teaching to children what their parents no longer, by the author, a man of the age of 50. To may be a valuable exposure of the London, under the leading "Lect. A Public (?) Opinion on Home Rule."—B.
